

Enhancing CCC-CSU-UC Collaboration (EC3) Workshop, October 19 & 20

We are presenting two hotel options. Remember to request travel support if needed.

Option #1: We have secured block reservations for the following two hotels, which are located 2.5 miles from the California State University, Fresno campus and 3 miles from the airport but are also within walking distance to the Clovis Mall, where you can shop and dine. These reservation rates are good until September 10th.

Option #2: “Old Clovis Town” hotels are located in a modern but entertaining district that highlights that Clovis was an “American Frontier Town.” You can stroll to antique stores, the Clovis Big Dry Creek Museum, many coffee shops, boutiques, and so on. Strolling along the “Clovis Heritage Walk” that honors the diverse heritage of the town, one finds the Bronco Buster statue by Reminder; a statue of The Acorn Gatherer (Mono Indians); the Challenge of Champions statue honored the Clovis Rodeo; the statue of Festus (Gunsmoke), whose actor Ken Curtis retired there, and many more. Old Clovis Town is 3 miles from the California State University, Fresno campus and 7 miles from the airport. The rates are the hotel’s standard rates and have no expiration date.
